

NOTICE TO ALL DEVELOPERS

Pursuant to Section 17.12 of Ordinance 26, Resource Protection District, an Ecological characterization Study must be completed if the proposed development site includes areas which have been identified on the Priority Resource Protection map of Springfield Township.

It may be in your best interest to complete the study early in the process, as this may impact the site design.